

Book on to working together week!

Day 1

Rachel Perkins, chair of the working together committee, will be warmly welcoming everyone to the week, followed by the 'Connected Through Creativity' Workshop hosted by Aimee Wilson, a person we support. The day will continue with an update of the working together plan and vision, hosted by Beverley Clay from the Quality and Continuous Improvement Team; followed by a workshop on Resilience from Richard Lilleyman from Aquarius. The day will conclude with a forum favourite: A recovery story from Ian Box, a person we support at Melbourne View.

Please use the link below to book on to Day 1:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/working-together-week-better-connections-day-1-tickets-122547180917>

Day 2

Join us for the Positive Relationships Workshop hosted by Vicki Pritchard from Our Time, followed by an update of the working together plan and vision from Beverley Clay on the Quality and Continuous Improvement Team. After the break there will be the 'Inspire the Nation Meditation' workshop hosted by Oliver Scott Richmond Fellowship, and the day will conclude with a forum favourite: A recovery story from Margaret Cully, a person we support at Melbourne View.

Please use the link below to book on to Day 2:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/working-together-week-better-connections-day-2-tickets-122554885963>

Day 3

Join us for the 'Connected Through Creativity' Workshop hosted by Aimee Wilson, a person we support, followed by an update of the working together plan and vision from Beverley Clay on the Quality and Continuous Improvement Team. After the break there will be a presentation on Equality Diversity and Inclusion, given by Tanya McIvor from the Insight & Impact Team, and the day will conclude with a forum favourite: A recovery story from James Tebbutt, a person we support from Aquarius.

Please use the link below to book on to Day 3:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/working-together-week-better-connections-day-3-tickets-122555796687>

Day 4

Join us for the Positive Relationships Workshop hosted by Vicki Pritchard from Our Time, followed by an update of the working together plan and vision from Beverley Clay on the Quality and Continuous Improvement Team. After the break there will be the 'Resilience, Coping Skills for Wellbeing' workshop delivered by Richard Lilleyman from Aquarius, and the day will conclude with a forum favourite: A recovery story from Kylie Holmes, a person we support at Cambridgeshire services.

Please use the link below to book on to Day 4:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/working-together-week-better-connections-day-4-tickets-122556807711>

Day 5

Join us to end working together week on a high. Thomas McCarthy from the Insight and Impact Team will be delivering a presentation on the client access portal on RFConnect, and then Dave Chawner, a comedian with lived experience of mental ill health will be performing a hilarious sketch for us. After the break, we will once again have the opportunity to join the 'Inspire the Nation Meditation' workshop delivered by Oliver Scott from Richmond Fellowship and then Rachel Perkins, the chair of the Working Together Committee will be closing off the week by thanking all the attendees and the people who worked so hard to make the week happen.

Please use the link below to book on to Day 5:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/working-together-week-better-connections-day-5-tickets-122558171791>